CONFERENCE VENUE

SCIENCE CONGRESS CENTER MUNICH

Science Congress Center Munich \(SCCM\) is a modern conference venue located on the Garching research campus just north of Munich. With its flexible meeting spaces, cutting-edge facilities, and sustainable design, it provides an ideal setting for ISEE 2026.

EXHIBITION AREA

ISEE 2026's exhibition will run throughout the entire conference. Booths will be located in the foyers in front of the session rooms. The exhibition area will also host the Welcome Reception on Sunday evening, as well as all coffee and lunch breaks, ensuring a steady flow of attendees at the booths.

SPONSORS' AND EXHIBITORS' BENEFITS

Focusing environmental epidemiology and related global and local challenges, the Annual Conference is an extraordinary networking platform to connect with scientists, researchers, engineers, institutional leaders, and industry experts. Seize the opportunity to foster new and long-term business relations and present yourself, your cause, products and services to a large international audience.

Different sponsorship packages as well as single sponsorship and exhibition items are offered. Interested companies may choose one of the pre-defined sponsorship packages and add any sponsorship items, if desired. Single sponsorship and exhibition options may also be booked.
